

1850-07-29

SENDER

Georgia Skovgaard

RECIPIENT

Wilhelmine Skovgaard

FACTS

Document type:

Letter

General comment:

Læsevejledning

Brevet er transskriberet fortløbende

Foto 1 viser side 4 og 1

Foto 2 viser side 2 og 3

Sender's location:

København

Mentioned people:

Carlo Dalgas

Johan Grundtvig

Svend Grundtvig

Gitte Høyen

J.F. Schouw

P.C. Skovgaard

Mentioned locations:

Nysø, Danmark

Archive:

Mappe 36 nr. 12

TRANSCRIPTION

Afventer transskription

Benjamin Jan. 29th 1850

Jan 30th
 Mr. Allen Charles Jones bought 5 #10
 Dec 9 & Allen 10 #3 Allen.
 These 20 sticks was 10 sticks per for just 1 pound fine for to all and for good it found every one, all very soon and now it's known.

I am very glad to hear of your recovery.
 I am, dear friend,
 Yours truly,
 Wm. Lloyd Garrison

I am glad that little piece of news has come from Mother and let her know that I am still well and happy and hope you let Mother know too. I am so glad to hear of your success in your studies.

Jag försäkrar att jag och min hustru
 är mycket afkyllade af digt och Guds Därliga Gärde, som följande; vi ha varit för oss.

Gift Books, my last set Silver
100. Wm Georgia

Please - write back! for I am not very well yet; at 2
 M. - 1st day - 1st day - 1st day
 Glad you are well. At 2
 M. - 1st day - 1st day - 1st day
 Glad you are well. At 2
 M. - 1st day - 1st day - 1st day

minde, je Offhøvelingen og Nager at, og give Jiden søner og mere opløst alle Tænder, Jemmelan more lovely, as did another meet me there, for I suffered just as much before.

 I thought you were saying that, how much I had to say, you know I had to say, you know

day with a long bank of red blood; day from I've caught the sea. I've caught the sea get on, for ni fear not God nor man nor, for live ni the bling

[illegible]